GERMAN APPEAL TO SWEDISH TRADE UNIONS ABOUT TRANSIT TRAFFIC...G, BEST, LINDBERG, "KLARA", SENATOR, GORETS (1944)

From: STOCKHOLM

To: MOSCOW

No.: 225

28 January 1944

To the 8th Department.

The German political enigré [5 groups unrecovered]...G(i) told "KLARA"(ii)
[2 groups unrecovered] first ten days of January 1944 BEST's(iii) representative arrived in STOCKHOLM from DENMARK on a visit to the president of the Swedish trade unions LINDBERG(iv), asking him to mediate between the German and Swedish governments in the matter of [24 groups unrecoverable]

and will occupy with their troops the Norwegian territory liberated by the Germans in order to guarantee the neutrality of NORWAY. The reason for the appeal to the president of the trade unions is the fact that German traffic in transit is [CX continually] coming up against obstacles created by the Swedish transport workers and the Germans would like the trade union leaders to exercise their influence upon the railwaymen. LINDBERG got in touch with the Swedish government, after which the German proposal was turned down. The information concerning the German appeals to the Swedish government about transit traffic and the Swedes' guarantee of NORWAY's neutrality, and also about the refusal of this through-travel was confirmed to KLARA by SENATOR[v] and GORET[vi].
